

2009 Concerts on the Square® Kid's Area

The Kids' Area is located on the corner of Main Street and Martin Luther King, Jr., Blvd. Parents and guardians are encouraged to participate in the free activities and are required to accompany their children at all times.

Sponsored by:

June 24, 2009, 5:30 & 6:15
Prairie Music Academy

STRIKE UP THE BAND

Tap your feet, beat a drum and sing-a-long with Prairie Music Academy! Rhythm instrument, singing and movement activities are sure to get your summer off to a musical start.

July 1, 2009, 5:30 & 6:15
Rich Baumann – Folksinger

DID ABE LINCOLN WANT A DINOSAUR TOO?

Rich Baumann will present two shows of uplifting songs, stories, and maybe even a poem or two for kids of all ages. Rich sings and plays the guitar, the banjo and the fiddle, but not all at once!

July 8, 2009 (continuous 5:00 – 6:30)
Madison Children's Museum

VERDI MEETS ELVIS

Big kids and little kids can get their Elvis on with Madison Children's Museum. Come dressed as Elvis for our Elvis costume parade, make a swanky belt buckle and hula hoop to Elvis and Verdi Music. Viva La Madison!

July 15, 2009, (continuous 5:00 – 6:30)
Monroe Street Fine Arts Center

RHYTHM & BLOOMS

Use colorful tissue paper to design and create a unique blooming flower to take home.

July 22, 2009, 5:30 & 6:15
Jamie Ryan and Francisco Martinez Percussionists

FEEL THE BEAT

Percussionists Jamie Ryan and Francisco Martinez will perform traditional Afro-Cuban music, while inviting children and adults alike to join them.

July 29, 2009, 5:30 & 6:15
Children's Theater of Madison

TO BE OR NOT TO BE...A MAVERICK!

Children's Theater of Madison's Teaching Artist will lead young concert goers in improvisations exploring teamwork and those occasional moments of solo invention. Join CTM for games in which participants work together, and exercises that inspire maverick moments of creativity.